SENT DEPARTMENT 1990; REPEATED INFORMATION CAIRO 27, BERN, BONN, VIENNA, NAPLES, JIDDA, UNNUMBERED

Re Department instruction CA-4781

I requested appointment call on Prince Faisal but was eventually advised Prince not (repeat not) feeling well enough at this time. Italian Foreign Office given same message in reply to offer to make courtesy call.

Jernegan and Kirk lunched with Sheikh Jabbar today and delivered President's message (DEPTTEL 2342). Jabbar said Prince was still much troubled by aftermath of operations, unable sleep well and spending most of time in bed. Trans-Atlantic trip had been trying for him and he had not (repeat not) left hotel since arrival Rome. Doctors said he would require another month of rest before resuming work. Jabbar added travel plans still uncertain but he expected Prince would leave Italy by ship for Egypt in another week or so and rest briefly in Cairo, then going on to Jidda or Riyadh. Apparently Prince has cancelled any plans visit other countries Europe.
